Organic Reishi Extract

Cat. No. CEFX-198

Lot. No. (See product label)

Introduction

Description	Organic Reishi Extract, derived from the active ingredients of Ganoderma lucidum (Ganoderma lucidum) fruiting bodies, is concentrated and purified. Reishi has been known as an “immortal herb” since ancient times and is widely used in traditional Asian medicine to enhance immunity and promote health. Reishi extracts are rich in polysaccharides, triterpenoids, proteins and other active ingredients, and are highly favored by the nutraceutical and pharmaceutical industries for their significant health benefits and application value.
Applications	Nutraceuticals: Reishi Extract is commonly used in the production of capsules, tablets, powders and liquid supplements for daily health care, immunity enhancement and anti-fatigue. Pharmaceuticals and Traditional Chinese Medicine: Reishi Extract is commonly used as an ingredient in traditional Chinese medicine as an aid in the treatment of chronic diseases such as liver problems, cardiovascular diseases and diabetes. Functional Foods and Beverages: Reishi Extract is also commonly added to functional foods, beverages and health teas to enhance the health benefits of the products. Beauty and anti-aging: With its antioxidant and anti-aging properties, Ganoderma lucidum extract is widely used in beauty and skin care products to help improve skin condition and slow down the signs of aging.
