

Native Bacillus amyloliquefaciens Protease

Cat. No. NATE-0632

Lot. No. (See product label)

Introduction

Description Bacterial protease produced by submerged fermentation of a selected strain of Bacillus amyloliquefaciens. Secretion of protease by Bacillus amyloliquefaciens can be inhibited by treatment with the fatty acid synthetase inhibitor cerulenin.

Applications Protease from Bacillus amyloliquefaciens has been used for the unhairing of hides and skins. It has also been used in a study to investigate peptide bond formation using the carbamoylmethyl ester as the acyl donor.

Synonyms Protease; Neutrase

Product Information

Source Bacillus amyloliquefaciens

Form liquid, > 0.8 U/g

CAS No. 9001-92-7