Creative Enzymes®

β-carotene

Cat. No. EXTZ-202

Lot. No. (See product label)

Introduction

Description Carotene is a fat-soluble precursor of vitamin A that exists in green and yellow vegetables. According to the number of double bonds, carotene can be divided into three categories: α, β, and γ. β-carotene is the most important component of it. Which is orange crystal, chemically stable, insoluble in water, slightly soluble in ethanol, easily soluble in organic solvents such as petroleum ether.

Product Information

Form Powder or crystal

Purity ≥96.0%(HPLC)