Introduction

|---|---|
| Description | Cactus Fruit Powder is a powder made from the fruit of the pear fruit cactus, a specialized species of cactus. It is rich in a variety of vitamins and minerals and has several health benefits including antioxidant, anti-inflammatory, hypoglycemic, and protective of heart health. |
| Applications | 1. Antioxidant and anti-inflammatory: Cactus fruit powder contains high levels of antioxidants, such as vitamins C and E, which can help fight free radical damage and protect the body from inflammation and chronic diseases. 2. Lower Blood Sugar: Cactus fruit powder is rich in dietary fiber, which helps control blood sugar levels and is especially beneficial for diabetics. At the same time, this fruit powder also helps to reduce hunger, which is also a good choice for people who need to control their weight. 3. Protect heart health: Cactus fruit powder contains antioxidants and other beneficial ingredients that can help lower blood pressure and cholesterol levels, thereby reducing the risk of heart disease. |
