Creative Enzymes®

Algal DHA Powder (Feed Grade)

Cat. No. CEFX-286

Lot. No. (See product label)

Introduction

Description	Schizochytrium is a microalgae from the deep sea, which is not only rich in unsaturated fatty acids such as DHA, but also contains polysaccharides, active peptides, squalene and other immunologically active substances, and a full range of essential amino acids, which can be used as feed additives or applied to feed as a source of protein and oil.
Applications	Pet food, Equine & Aquarium Feed additives for livestock, poultry, aquatic animals, pets, ruminants and other farm animals. Dosage:10-30kg/ton feed

Product Information

Source	Schizochytrium
Appearance	Yellowish brown powder
Form	powder
Purity	DHA 20%

Usage and Packaging

Package	1kg/aluminum foil bag or 25kg/cardboard drum

Storage and Shipping Information

Storage	The product should be sealed and shielded from light, avoid high temperature, stored in a dry, cool, well-ventilated place.